HODGES' FIRST ARMY POURS ACROSS RHINE

Russians Drive Within 29 Miles of Berlin

Escape Hatch for 50,000 Germans Is Rapidly Closing

By DON WHITEHEAD

With U. S. First Army on the Rhine, March 8.—(AP)—Lt. Gen. Courtney H. Hodges poured infantry across the Rhine today in a sudden and sensational crossing of the great river barrier begun last night.

Security forbade disclosing exact location of the bridgehead, but substantial forces have been thrown across the river south of Cologne and the Doughboys have a firm footing on the east bank.

The crossing was announced just two days after First Army troops captured the great Rhineland city of Cologne and 13 days after Hodges launched his offensive across the Roer river.

The Rhine crossing, it can be disclosed, was made with such suddenness that the enemy was caught unprepared and there was light opposition.

Hodges seized the opportunity for establishing a bridgehead with no delay and threw in troops quickly while the Germans were still disorganized from the swift American smash across the Cologne plains and Eifel mountains.

(A Blue Network broadcast said the First Army was a mile and a half from Bonn and three from Bad Bodesberg, where Neville Chamberlain, umbrella in hand, met Hitler just before the Munich conference seeking "peace in our time." German resistance was said to have collapsed with Americans racing through town after town virtually unopposed.)

The Germans said the First army had crossed the Ahr river, last water barrier between them and the Third army, and that Patton's tanks were "advancing through the Eifel in the Rhine-Moselle triangle."

Both armies had achieved breakthroughs and both were attacking under news blackouts which Gen. Eisenhower hoped would keep the foe ignorant of their movements.

There was reason to expect that the trap would close within a matter of hours, tearing off another 2,500 square miles of the shrinking Reich.

Third army censors passed this cryptic message:

"Nothing new was reported officially on the Fourth Armored Division which reached the Rhine yesterday, but tanks are not yet across the river."

The terrific breakthrough of the Fourth armored division, led by white-haired Maj. Gen. Hugh Gaughan of Austin, Texas, Lt. Gen. George S. Patton's former chief of staff, covered 75 miles in 58 hours and reached the Rhine at a point specified only as "the area of Coblenz." Another column of this Third army division spurred southward from the Mayen vicinity and last was reported three miles from the Moselle.

The First army pressed upon Bonn in an arc last reported from two to three miles from that ancient birthplace of Beethoven. The Bonn bridge across the Rhine was reported down.

In the Wesel area north of the Ruhr capital of Duesseldorf, the Canadian First Army launched two dawn attacks against the 40-square mile pocket where 20,000 German troops last were reported fighting resolutely.

Gen. Eisenhower's seven active armies all were on the Rhine and held more of its castled west bank north of the Alps than did the Germans. The last of the Rhine land was as good as lost. The Germans had the west bank only in the Saar wedge between the Moselle and the Rhine.

Approximately 350 fighters provided cover for the bombers. Close protection against the German air force seldom is needed any more.

The British night attack was carried out by the largest force sent out by the RAF this year.

Gen. George S. Patton's 3rd Army, spearheaded by Brig.-Gen. Holmes Dager's tanks, hit a mile-an-hour clip following start of its big push east of Bitburg, and now threatens the Rhine city of Coblenz. U. S. 1st and 9th Armies to the north are consolidating their positions along the Rhine. On the Eastern Front, the Russians, in capturing Cammin, sealed off the Baltic port of Stettin, and are closing in on that Oder River city.

Gains Made By Yanks On Luzon Island

By RICHARD C. BERGHLZ

Manila, March 8.—(AP)—U. S. troops were on the southern shores of Luzon for the first time today as other Yanks, east of Manila, inched forward against Japanese positions softened by the heaviest air strikes thus far used in support of ground action in the southwest Pacific.

While American bombers sweeping China sea shipping sank or damaged two warships and 16 freighters, 11th Airborne Division and 15th Infantry Regiment units penetrated to the south coast of Luzon Tuesday to capture Balayan and Calatagan at Balayan bay.

They met only scattered resistance.

In the bitterly-contested Marikina watershed area east of Manila, heavy bombers, attack planes and dive bombers dropped more than 900 tons of explosives on the elaborate Japanese entrenchments which have held the Yanks virtually stalemate for weeks.

This was a mighty assault in support of ground operations than that given the 503rd Paratroopers on Corregidor or any other major objective from the Philippines to New Guinea. Bombers of all sizes made more than 75 sorties.

TWC KILLED, SEVEN HURT AT CROSSING

Greenecastle, March 8.—(AP)—Two youths were killed and seven other boys and girls were injured early today when their automobile was struck by a Pennsylvania Railroad freight train at a crossing near Greenecastle.

The group was returning from Carlisle where they had witnessed the Greenecastle-Camp Hill basketball game.

Those killed were Robert Faubel, 15, Chambersburg, Route 5, and John Golden, 18, of Kauffman's Station, near Chambersburg. Golden was awaiting induction into the navy.

Cologne Tour Reveals the Reich Committed To Suicide

By LOUIS P. LOCHNER

Cologne, March 8.—(AP)—After taking inventory of what remains of Cologne and other lesser German cities captured by the Allies, the conclusion is inescapable that Adolf Hitler has committed the Reich to national suicide.

I have just completed my first detailed tour of Cologne's downtown section. It was a sorry sight on this break, cold day.

Cologne's Wall Street, the Unter Sachsenhausen, exists no more. The proud structures of the Reichsbank, Dresden bank, Disconto Gesellschaft and other financial institutions are burned out.

Their large, modern buildings have taken terrific beatings from the air and none can be used without complete overhauling.

The cathedral itself is still standing, but there is no denying it suffered some damage.

War-Time Prosperity Hits Penitentiary

Philadelphia, March 8.—(AP)—Wartime prosperity has hit Eastern State Penitentiary.

So many prisoners earned more than $624 on prison war contracts last year, Warden Herbert Smith said, that a revenue agent will spend a day at the prison helping the men fill out income tax returns.

More Labor Is Promised Philadelphia

Philadelphia, March 8.—(AP)—A program to transfer 16,921 men from "less essential" industry into highly critical war industry in the labor-starved Philadelphia area will go into effect Monday, the War Manpower Commission said today.

The program was prepared after months of conferences among labor, industry, federal, selective service and WMC officials, the commission said, following which an 11-point agreement was signed.

"This is not the same program as the Allentown 'war or no work' plan begun on a small scale in Allentown early this year, but it is similar," a commission spokesman said.

The new program affects male workers in "less essential" industries from 16 years of age upwards," the WMC said. "There is an overall need in the Philadelphia area for 25,000 persons, including women," the commission said.

First to be affected, the commission said, will be such industries as confectionery, hat manufacturing, brewery, taxicab, lace manufacturing, baking (not bread makers), but fancy cake bakers), soft drink bottling and textile manufacturing.

"Philadelphia is the first city in which such a plan has been adopted after months of preparation," the WMC spokesman said.

Expect Operators To Reject Terms

Washington, March 8.—(AP)—Bituminous coal operators, a week after John L. Lewis presented "8 demands for a new contract, apparently are dead set against a 10-cent-a-ton "participating royalty" for the miners.

Lewis asked for the royalty to build up a United Mine Workers' fund estimated at $55,000,000 to $60,000,000 annually for rehabilitation, medical service and "economic protection" for the miners.

Among operators who would discuss it today, there was a feeling that the royalty request extended beyond the realm of negotiation. Some questioned the seriousness of the demand.

In three days of discussion between negotiating committees representing miners and operators six of the 18 demands have been covered, including the royalty. The present bituminous contract expires March 31.

MARINES JAB LAST-STAND LINE OF JAPS

Leathernecks Drive Up To 500 Yards in Hand-to-Hand Combat With Nips on Two

NO SIGN OF COLLAPSE

U. S. Pacific Fleet Headquarters, Guam, March 8.—(AP)—Dents in the last-stand line of the Japanese on northern Iwo, driven up to 500 yards in hand-to-hand combat Wednesday, were exploited today by three Marine divisions striving for a breakthrough.

In a maze of pillboxes and blockhouses, with their backs to the cliffs, the Nipponese still showed no sign of a collapse as they met the all-out leatherneck drive with intense small arms and machine gun fire.

The latest push opened Tuesday. The fighting all that day netted only local gains. Yesterday one 500-yard salient was won on the west side by Maj. Gen. Keller E. Rockey's Fifth Division, another was pushed into the center of the line by Maj. Gen. Graves B. Erskine's Third Division. A dent of 200 yards was punched into the east side by Maj. Gen. Clifton B. Cates' Fourth.

They were, by no means, general advances. Every step was contested by a foe which has lost two-thirds of an original garrison of 20,000 and is battling to last man.

Already low-lying districts of the manufacturing city of 40,000 population were taking shelter on higher ground. Five hundred evacuees were taken by train to Chillicothe, 40 miles up the Sciotoc, where they were cared for by Red Cross.

No damage comparable with that left by the 1935 and 1937 floods was expected because of advance warnings.

Some water stood on streets and spread over a two-block section along the Sciotoc, which suddenly surged five inches in an hour last night, but no general flooding of the low sections was reported.

Carried planes, bent on keeping the Japanese airforce away from the scene, neutralized enemy bases in the Bonin Islands north of Iwo Tuesday and Wednesday with bombs and rockets.

Program To Relieve State Institutions

Harrisburg, March 8.—(AP)—Utilization of between 600 and 700 inmates at Mt. Alto sanitarium and 500 more at Clarks Summit hospital was expected to help relieve the overcrowded conditions now existing in Pennsylvania mental hospitals.

Welfare Secretary S. M. R. O'Hara told a Senate committee yesterday that the hospitals now have an inmate population of 35,000 against a rated capacity of 27,500 with the number of patients increasing at the rate of 700 annually.

"We are doing everything that can be done," she told the committee, then added "I cannot build hospitals overnight."

Flood Scare In Pittsburgh Disappearing

Pittsburgh, March 8.—(AP)—The Monongahela and Allegheny rivers, swollen to a 33.4 crest by a 28-hour rainfall and bank-filled streams, were dropping today.

The two Ohio river tributaries dropped to 30.3 feet—5.3 feet over flood stage—early this morning and were falling at the rate of five tenths of a foot an hour, the Bureau's second city was imminent.

In their 14 mile dash southward from Madaya to Mandalay Indian troops of the British division by-passed a considerable number of Japanese. These enemy groups appeared dazed and bewildered and are scheduled for later elimination.

Enemy battle planes apparently have been disorganized by the British dash across the Irrawaddy river to the Mektila area, an operation which has threatened the Japanese rear communications.

Unless the Japanese can bring reinforcements immediately, it is believed here they may be ousted from Burma in the not too distant future.

These percentages of capacity were retained late yesterday: Tygart, near Grafton, W. Va., 64; Youghiogheny, 13.5; Monongahela, 33; Mahoning creek 73.5; Crooked Creek, 51, and Loyalhanna, 41.5.

As the swirling waters receded from Madaya to Mandalay Indian troops of the British division by-passed a considerable number of Japanese. These enemy groups appeared dazed and bewildered and are scheduled for later elimination.

For war-vital Pittsburgh, the speed with which the rivers fell reflected the rapidity of work resumption at plants shut down in expectation of flood danger.

Flood control dams, described by army engineers as an important contributory cause in staying the rise of creeks and rivers beyond disaster levels, were releasing water gradually.

Wherever you are, Lt. LeTrent, I know you'd want to know what happened to the rest of the boys. Eddy and Spike are in hospital in England. SWANSON BROTHERS MEET IN BELGIUM

Word has been received from Sgt. Frederick J. Swanson and Pfc. Marshall E. Swanson, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Swanson, of Pleasanton, that they recently had the pleasure of meeting somewhere in Belgium. Marshall writes that he was walking along the street when suddenly someone drove up and said "Hi, there". He looked up and who could it be but his brother, Frederick. The boys had dinner and spent several happy hours together, when the sergeant spoke up, saying "I must be on my way. I have no more time to linger. So long for now, will see you soon". Marshall writes: "Don't worry, Frederick looks swell. Only thing wrong with him is a beard of several days' growth".

LANDER SOLDIER GETS DECORATION

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stanton, of Lander, have received word that their son S/Sgt. John Henry Stanton, of Lander, has been awarded the Bronze Star Medal. No details have been given concerning the action which merited the decoration.

Not long before we sent the boys back a sniper got me in the shoulder and leg. Lt. LeTrent located the sniper and I need not say what happened. I was bleeding bad and couldn't walk. John pulled me into a ditch and told me to be quiet for a few minutes. Three Germans were approaching us. Lt. LeTrent waited until they were 15 yards from him and let them have it with his Tommy gun. Those were three more Germans we don't have to fight any more. He looked at me and asked if I was all right, with that smile he always had. He said that the lines weren't over a thousand yards ahead of us and we would have to wait until night settled in before starting off again. Lt. LeTrent took Sgt. Whitten with him to locate the bridge. They were gone three hours. When they got back they had enough information for us that all we had to do was follow orders.

We knew where the bridge was; the traffic on the bridge; how many guards on the bridge; the time the guard changed; the route to take to get there; our route to withdraw; and our assembly point to meet after we had blown the bridge. We were to start out at 1:30 a. m. to get to the bridge by 2:15 a. m. we knew the new guard went on at 1 a. m. and was relieved at 3:30, which gave us time to operate under one tour of guard.

Two men were picked to overthrow the guard and the rest of the boys to be on the lookout and protect Lt. LeTrent and Sgt. Whitten, who were going to set the dynamite and TNT under the pier. I was to string the wire back to the detonator and have it all set. Lt. LeTrent gave the order for all

Runaway Boys Sent Home By Policemen

Two 16-year-old boys from Jamestown who had set out to see the world were in their own beds this morning, due to the sharp eyes of Charles Musante, officer on the night shift of Warren police. Musante spotted the two lads at the bus station this morning and picked them up on suspicion that they were runaways. They were taken to the police station and questioned and then word was telephoned to the Jamestown police. The lads told the local officers they had run away from their homes. Their destination was not clearly outlined.

Jamestown police communicated with the parents of the two boys and they were placed on a bus for Jamestown and sent home. The boys gave their names as Edson Butts and John Moyer. Both seemed glad they were homebound and each produced money enough to buy a bus ticket to Jamestown.

WHAT'S YOUR SHARE?

Tomorrow the Red Cross War Fund will seek $42,600 as Warren county's share of $200,000,000 the Red Cross must have to carry on its work this next 12 months.

Their slogan, "Keep the Red Cross at His Side", is no idle phrase. For, like the Army and Navy, the Red Cross is in this global war to the limit. In the camps at home, rest camps overseas, working with prisoners of war and bringing small comforts to the boys in the front lines, the Red Cross serves our boys and serves them well.

What will be your share in this work? How many of your dollars will you give to help keep the Red Cross "at his side"? What satisfaction, measured in terms of dollars, will your gift give you?

Our quota in Warren county is a modest one, compared to the national quota, which is larger than a year ago. Larger, because the Red Cross is working harder, covering more territory than ever and doing a grander job, in a better way, than was ever thought possible.

Here is a chance for we folks on the home front to give a little of ourselves to our boys "over there" who are giving everything they possess for their loved ones at home. The Red Cross needs no one to extoll its good works. Nothing we can say will add to the lustre of what our boys are doing in the tough battles in which they are engaged. But, by the amount of our gift, we can, in a small way, tell them of our appreciation and know that the Red Cross will administer our gift in the best possible manner. So, come now, what's your share?

No war of history has produced such flaming drama as is now being staged on the battlefields of Europe, but one of the most impressive features of this great finale is a behind-the-scenes effect—the amazing coordination of the effort between the western Allies and the Russians. This teamwork has been particularly noticeable since the Crimean parley of the Big Three, when important military decisions were taken to ensure full cooperation as the Allies rush for the kill.

The Warren School Music Boosters' Club, one of the most progressive organizations in Warren, has an interesting program for the meeting this evening at 7:45 o'clock in Beatty school. This group makes a large contribution to the music life of the community.

Now that the cinders are being cleared from the paved streets of the borough, it is hoped that it will not be necessary to scatter another layer.

JESUS HAD TO DIE

Lesson, Rom. 5:8. Text, I Peter 3:18. Jesus expired amid the most awful and sublime phenomena ever known. This earth, which had moved steadily for thousands of years, trembled from center to circumference when the cross to which He was nailed was uplifted. The rocks let go and fell apart. All nature felt the shock. The king of day veiled his face and refused to look upon that scene. Oh, what a tragedy to stir the soul! The earth was the theatre, wicked men the players, the Marys of earth and the angels of heaven the on-lookers. The scene inevitably arises, "Why did Jesus have to die?"

Jesus had to die in order that we might understand to some extent how God hates sin! Sin is the transgression of God's law, whether by thought, words or actions. I wonder if any of us has ever realized what it is to commit sin! It seems that the greatest privilege that any Christian could have would be that God should bestow upon him the power to adequately conceive the "exceeding sinfulness of sin", and then, because of this divine bestowal, to be enabled to convince others of God's appraisal of sin. The only accurate gauge we have with which to measure the enormity of sin is the punishment that a loving, tender, compassionate God has decreed against it. We look at the cross and see Jesus die! The heavens darkened, the sun clouded—we hear the rumbling of the earth and the rocks rending; men falling and trembling. And we cry out, "O, God, why all this darkness and this woe?" And from the chasms of eternity we hear a voice of love—saying "It is because I want the sinner to see what a fearful thing sin is; I would have him know that I hate sin, but I love the sinner, and want to save him from it!" God hates sin today! Hates it with a perfect hatred. He could not be a perfect God unless He hated sin with a perfect hatred. Hence this sacrifice, the spotless Son of God, must be a perfect sacrifice to bring men back to God.

The Cuppers are about the happiest married couple in our town. Comfortable off, too, after Dee's fifty years of honest work. But their two most prized possessions are an old beer mug and an 1890 Floradora hat.

From where I sit, a lot of marriages would be happier if there were more funny-looking hats and old beer mugs in the background. Tolerance is a mighty good foundation for living happily together.

When they were first married, Dee allows he couldn't stand the hat; while Jane turned her nose up (privately) at Dee's fondness for a friendly glass of beer from time to time. But each figured it was the other's right... so they lived and let live.

49th Metzger-Wright Spring Opening
Recalls Era of Old Kerosene Lamp

An evening of pleasure was given the community on Wednesday when Metzger-Wright's opened its doors for its annual Spring Opening, a much-anticipated event of the last 49 spring seasons, and it was noted that each year the store and its windows seem to outdo all previous efforts in attractiveness.

The matter of windows was a problem in this year of 1945, when the brown-out decree is nationwide, but the always alert decorator, Mildred Carter, created windows recalling the years before electricity was even thought of, the years of kerosene lamps, and lighted each of the Early American windows in this fashion.

Wandering on Liberty street, one found himself transported back to the days when attics had large cobwebs and little mice running around, but the artist was dressed very much in the mode of today. Another window on the street carried one back to the time of cabbies in Central Park, complete with old carriage lights and lamp post lights, but a modern miss respondent in a copper coat and suit for walking in the park. Along Second avenue, the blending of old and new was most evident. Black and white checks, light shades of lime, American Beauty, navy, chartreuse were well to the fore in the fashion picture in these displays and two bedrooms and one country scene complete with lantern, captured the eye. The lamps and old fashioned furniture was loaned for the occasion by the Thrift Shop.

One fully expected the entire store to be lighted by lamplight, but inside one returned at once to the era of today's wonders. Exquisite handbags, such as hasn't been seen in years, greeted the eye and charming was the only way to express the beauty of the cosmetics. Materials, with their corresponding accessories, were draped gracefully on all the tables, making a gorgeous color panorama. The new rayon and linen, or rayon and cotton table cloths, were exquisite in their shimmering beauty. We vowed to make ourselves at least one suit from the exciting new wools and flannels we saw on display.

On the second floor we went into ecstasies over one little room which was complete with a studio couch, all made over with striped and solid color fabric, and new window treatments that were exceptional in their combination of striped and solid color fabric to show how the old could be made over into the new. Beautiful florals and stripes, new curtains with deep ruffles, and tailored ones, were all artistically displayed, all with their coordinated wall paper, which came in for our "Ohs" and "Ahs" on this floor.

Of course, Third Floor was where we must linger a while to see all the cleverest Easter hats, if one could call those little flower creations such, so pert, so simply luscious in colors and even in black. We were quite thrilled over the new coral shades in coats, suits, and dresses. Everywhere was color, bright or subdued, but an array of color which took our breath away. Even in the infants' and sportswear departments, as well as in lingerie. One black and white creation we vowed would be ours, a soft woolly coat over a black dress.

On Fourth Floor where Ford Winner's Orchestra held sway, we admired the Easter fashions for our girl in her teens and her younger sister. Very much like mother's were these complete with suit and coats to match or contrast and lovely new fashions in dressing.

What we would not give to have some of the new chinaware we found in the china department and all that clear glass which means so much easier cooking for us. All displayed in the most interesting treatments.

All in all, we enjoyed our evening at Metzger-Wright's, as did many other of the community and we do feel that this 49th Spring Opening has been one of the most enjoyable of them all.

YOUTH PARTY HAS PLANS COMPLETE FOR AUDITORIUM SHOWS

Because of their success, auditorium shows have become an established part of the community young people's parties at Beatty school. Eleanor Peters, chairman of the committee, announced today that there will be two performances of this week's auditorium show on Friday evening. Curtain time for the first performance will be 8:45 and for the second, 9:15.

John Erickson will again act as master of ceremonies. An innovation will be a skit, "Betty Beware", presented under the direction of Mrs. Phyllis Stanley, head of the Warren High School dramatic department. The cast features Betsi Conaway, Meredith Hutchings, and Betty Jean Kolpien.

Musical specialties on the program include Marcia Johnson, with a piano solo; a vocal number by Hugh Jamieson; and a clarinet number by Wilmer Latshaw. The committee will announce another auditorium specialty tomorrow.

Young people attending the party are reminded that free tickets must be secured at the door for admission to either auditorium show performance. Jim Richards is handling the table reservations for the gym and tickets for the auditorium show. Both of the performances on the Beatty stage will be completed in time for the floor show at 10 o'clock.

There will be dancing in the gym from 8:30 until the floor show starts and afterwards until the party closes at 11:30. Ping pong and table games will be available the same hours.

The new information booth worked so effectively at the last party, it has been made a part of the regular party setup. Charles Cochran, in charge of information, has had signs made this week for all departments of activity and Arlene Speckman, or a member of her committee, will be at the information booth all evening.

Tolerance

Barbara Coe, 222 Conewango Avenue
Second Prize in Brotherhood Week Essay Contest

How strange it is that in our country, which has always prided itself on modern ideas, a question of tolerance should even arise! This country was founded by people who wanted to escape the intolerance of Europe. Yet now, when it is so important to have a united nation, ugly race and religious problems threaten.

Tolerance is a mental habit which one acquires from his parents, his education, and his religious training. It develops according to the tempo at which one lives. Children who have had to respect other people and their beliefs become tolerant and fair-minded. Schools that practice and teach the true principles of democracy produce broad-minded individuals. However, in a church where tolerance should be supreme, the purpose becomes inconsistent when petty quarrels arise.

Being tolerant is respecting others' opinions, customs and preferences. It does not mean that we have to accept these things for ourselves. A tolerant person can admire beauty or ability wherever he finds it.

There is nothing that helps human existence as the ability to live and let live. Everyone respects a person who feels and acts superior. There is nothing to which human nature responds so quickly as interest, kindness and appreciation.

To have a tolerant society, all we have to do is practice this simple principle. There are no superior races. There is just a difference in the training and advantages that people have had.

Considering the number of race riots and strikes that we have had, it is quite evident that we are not practicing tolerance. We have grown far apart from the ideals on which our country was founded. Every American should carefully examine his conscience to see if his conduct and ideals measure up to the attitude of tolerance which is so necessary to peace and prosperity.

There's Greater Family Health Protection when Home "Danger Zones" are CLOROX-CLEAN!

YOUR spotless kitchen and bathroom, your freshly laundered linens may actually be "danger zones." They can look innocently clean, yet in reality harbor germs, a possible menace to your family's health. Ordinary cleansing of such "danger zones" is not enough. Added sanitation is needed. Clorox used in routine cleansing provides added sanitation. Clorox disinfects... it deodorizes, bleaches, removes stains, too. And Clorox is extra efficient, because it is ultra-refined, free from caustic, an exclusive patented quality-feature.

"Danger Zones" in the Bathroom! The bathroom, because it is the family's personal clean-up room, is a natural gathering place for dangerous germs. You can't see them but they're often present, even in spic-and-span bathrooms. For added health protection use Clorox regularly in cleansing your bathroom.

"Danger Zones" in the Kitchen! Make sure kitchen sanitation is not slighted, for infection dangers can spread rapidly. High standards of sanitation are easily attained with Clorox. It disinfects, deodorizes, also removes stains from dishcloths, china, glass, tile, enamel, linoleum, wood surfaces; it destroys mold; reduces risk of food spoilage.

Linens Beautifully White, Sanitary! Clorox gently bleaches your white cottons and linens snowy-white (brightens color-fast cottons and linens), removes stains, scorch, mildew... makes laundry fresh, sanitary. Clorox also reduces the need for long, vigorous rubbing, thus conserving fabrics. Use Clorox in laundering for a whiter, brighter and more sanitary wash.

Peregrinating Island Causes Debate Among Observers

The island above the Glade Run bridge has probably roused more comment during the past few days than any other topic except the war. Has the island moved down stream? Scores of observers are staunch in their argument that it really has moved while there are others equally sure that the island has held its base and has not gone gallivanting down stream.

Donald Spencer, of the Highway Department who has worked around Glade bridge many times and who aided in putting new piers under it is sure that the island is not moving down stream. He points out that with water over the island it just looks different to the casual observer. The big tree which Pete Fanaritis claims he could jump into off the bridge is just where it always was, says Spencer. Merrill Jordan, U. S. Government Observer of the river and its moods is also sure that the island is not jumping around and has staid put although the river annually takes its toll of the earth and trees on the island. He is sure the "big tree" is just where it was and that there has been no shifting in position.

Deputy Sheriff Sanford Secor has joined the ranks of the folk who claim the island has moved down stream. He said this morning: "I drive past there every day but never took particular notice until this morning. I really think the island has moved, just how far I couldn't say but it seems to

Victory Gardeners To Receive Advice On Their Plantings

With the forecasts that foods of various kinds will be in much less quantity than they were last year the government is urging that every householder this year plant a victory garden. Home canning of garden products this year will be more important than in 1944 and there promises to be a real scarcity of foodstuffs of many kinds next fall and winter.

In an effort to aid the gardeners of this county to attain a greater degree of success in their work this year, County Agent O. C. Tritt has arranged a series of garden meetings in this county, for Thursday and Friday of this week. Meetings on Thursday will be held at 10:30 a. m. at the Garland community house; at 1:30 at the National Forge and Ordnance club house, Irvine, and at 8:30 in the court house. Friday meetings will be held at 10:30 at the Sugar Grove school house and at 1:30 at the Lander community hall.

C. J. Stout, vegetables garden specialist at State College, has been secured to come into the county and address the gatherings. His topic will be "How To Get the Most Out of the Vegetable Garden With the Least Amount of Fertilizer." He is an expert in giving information to prospective gardeners and those who had gardens last year will find much to aid them in the continuation of the work they started last year.

Timber Need Grows Great For War Work

With the continuation of the war around the globe and the immense construction programs of the Army, Navy the rehabilitation agencies the need of more and more timber is accentuated. To the end that all possible may be secured H. B. Rowland, T. P. W. P., formerly of this city where he was State District Forester has been placed in charge of the Timber Production War Project in the state. Working with him are the county project foresters, W. B. Ward, Forest Ranger of the U. S. Forest Service with headquarters in Sheffield is in charge of the Forest Project in this county. Robert L. Brockman, of Meadville, a Farm Forester is in charge in Crawford county and John W. Wilson, District Forester is in charge of the work in Venango and Erie counties.

Foresters in charge of the Timber Production War Project are trying in every way to help sawmill owners and woodland owners increase the amount of lumber that can be made available for the war effort. The drive to interest farmers in cutting logs, and, if possible to haul them to a mill is one small piece of work that is being done under the project.

During the past few months much attention has been drawn to the trucks loaded with logs that have passed through Warren.

Farmers in the county with woodlots are co-operating in the work and are adding goodly sums to their bank accounts.

will be viewed with interest by hundreds who have in the past only given it a cursory glance as they drove past. And as one fellow puts it "It gives 'em something to talk about".

Cold Causes Drop In Water About County

During the night the Allegheny river and other streams in the county dropped sharply from their high of yesterday and waters are rapidly returning to their regular courses. The river this morning registered 11.7 feet and was falling, according to the official observer. Low lands that had been covered with water were beginning to emerge from the flood. Most of the ice that had been deposited on the river banks when the ice went out had been washed back into the stream and carried off. However at Corydon and Kinzua where the fields were covered with tons of ice it is not expected that most of it will be in the fields until melted by the sun.

There is an axiom among river men that the river always rises high enough to take any ice that it left. Should that prove true more high water is promised by the old river men who do not feel that the river will rise to that height again to remove the ice at Corydon and Kinzua.

Small streams over the county are getting back into normal shape and while there is considerable snow left in the woodlands yet danger from a flood is thought to be passed.

Air Express Records Are Being Broken

One of the developments in air traffic which is attracting widespread attention in this community is the air express which is increasing by leaps and bounds. Last month the handling of air express in Warren broke all records and almost two tons of matter was transmitted by this method. Agent Gilmore, of the Railway Express Company, stated this morning that last month the air express business handled at the Warren office was 225% greater than for any other month in the history of the business.

It was also commented upon that should the air express business continue to grow in coming years, and it undoubtedly will, as it has in the past the company handling it will have to install larger planes. Here difficulty will

the other day and recalled some of the events when the phonograph was becoming popular in households.

Mahood is not one of the real old timers, but has been around quite a spell and claims he had the first bonified phonograph store in Warren—some others like the

Bennett Piano Co., Ozio Weaver,

Barnhart and DeForest Insurance

Agency and maybe Blieckars sold them as a side line, but Mahood had a complete line of "Genuine

Gold Molded Columbia Phonograph

records."

The old time musicians didn't think much of that "canned" music in those days.

Mahood's store was then located at what would be next door to Morell's Restaurant in a little low frame building belonging to Charlie Crandell.

Came a big Fourth of July

Celebration and he borrowed what was then something in the line of a record reproducer from the Columbia Phonograph Co., and had it on a truck in the parade. It was regular "bull fiddle" in the phonograph line and had a big brass horn six feet long. It was probably the first "transcribed" music ever on the streets of Warren.

He kept the machine in his store and played it in the evenings and had a record of the San Francisco

Earthquake that was a hair-rai-

—fire bells, explosions, buildings falling, screams and all the racket

it was possible to imitate in those days. It was a warm evening and the doors were open and Mahood had the big horn pointed straight up the Conswango Creek.

Everything was going fine, when along came Joe Willy on his faithful old bicycle—Joe was almost the entire police force then—and wanted to know "where the riot was?" A look up the creek showed the Third and Fifth street bridges lined with people looking for a "big fire" or somethin'.

The "good neighbor policy" was in vogue even in those days and Mahood loaned the contraption to Frank Scott, to play in front of his moving picture place, which was located where Gaughn's Drug Store now is.

Electrical amplification had not been invented then and this machine had fast moving wheels with a clutch arrangement that caused the amplification after a little powdered resin had been applied to the wheel—same as the old "bull fiddles".

Anyway, Scott heard that wheel squeaking one evening and gave it a liberal dose of machine oil and

Drive Plans Discussed At Youngsville

Blue and White Cagers Wind Up Successful Season Under New Coach; 16 Wins, 6 Losses

Warren High School's basketball team has wound up another successful season, the first for Joseph A. Massa under Blue and White colors. The Dragon crew completed their 1944-5 season with a total of 16 wins and 6 losses, bettering the mark set by the championship 1943-4 aggregation who won 14 and lost seven, and equaling the '43-4 Dragons' venture into playoff competition, but stopping at exactly the same place.

Starting off with three lettermen and a new head mentor, the Dragons developed into a heighty and smooth-running ball club. Joe Scalise, Bob Hammerbeck and Lucia returned to the scene to form the backbone on another championship crew. Massa, having been with the Dragons one year, as second team coach, took the reigns left by veteran Heinie Kolpjen and started to build another championship five. Taking Tom Juliano, Jack Eaton and Al Babcock, Massa drilled the boys for several weeks before they hit their first opponent.

The Blue and White opened the season with a 6-2 win over the Youngsville Eagles, followed up by a 4-25 victory over St. Mary's Dutchmen. The first defeat came from Jamestown, a heart-breaker. The Dragons dropped a 34-33 to the Red and Green, but their courage didn't falter. They came back to decision Corry, Kane, Servicemen, and St. Mary's the second time, before Bradford downed the quint, 35-19. They kept on with Meadville and Titusville the next victims, but Jamestown interfered with the victory march again. Franklin, Oil City and Meadville all league contestants, were the next to drop under Dragon power, as the locals continued to reign in the Section Two race.

Youngsville came next under the Dragons' march. Titusville pulled a surprise and took the locals on the Rockets' home court, but later forfeited. Bradford repeated before the Dragons could make a comeback and top Corry in a postponed battle. Franklin went down for the second time and Oil City,irked by the "Titusville affair," scored a 5-point decision over Warren. In a post-season tilt, the Dragons revenged two earlier defeats from Jamestown by drubbing the New Yorkers, 40-29.

Having copped the Section Two title, the Dragons invaded Farrell to battle the Section Three champ, but lost out.

Returning next year are three seasoned vets who tower above the six-foot mark, Jack Eaton, Al Babcock and Ray Reed all return, with Simmons, Gray, and McNally for a half-year, and Jim Scalise for a full year.

selle and the French border north of Strasbourg, plus a disappearing strip between Bonn and Coblenz, and the eight mile Wesel pocket.

Eisenhower's armies were lined up for a crossing.

The Third Army breakthrough left the German Seventh army and the ragged end of the 15th army shattered in one of the most complete defeats the enemy yet has suffered in the west.

Some German divisions still were trying to fight it out along the Kyll river. Perhaps these were not yet aware that their supply lines were broken and their escape routes cut.

Just north of the Fourth Armored Division's corridor to the Rhine, the 11th Armored Division also smashed the German lines and raced halfway from the Kyll to Mayen. Infantry was pouring down both corridors as fast as trucks could carry them. The mopup proceeded swiftly.

have reached the island and that preparations were underway to storm it.

Scores of cleanup battles were being fought eastward along the Baltic where up to 200,000 Germans have been encircled in Pommerania, Danzig and the old Polish corridor, and Berlin said there was a "terrific bloodletting" in these fights.

Moscow dispatches said the remnants of half a dozen German divisions were cornered in by-passed Kolberg on the Baltic. Berlin said the Russians had broken into the city.

A dispatch late last night from Associated Press Correspondent Eddy Gilmore in Moscow said "many signs pointed tonight to an early launching of the all-out offensive on Berlin."

To All Workers in Warren County!

SOMETIMES soon you will be asked to give to the American Red Cross WAR FUND.

SOMEWHERE in the far-flung battle stations of the world our boys have come to know the real meaning of "Blood, Sweat and Tears." Some of these boys are from your own shop, your own office, your own home.

SOMEHOW it may be that when you give from your heart to ease their suffering . . . to make their safe return more possible . . . to throw every possible care around them when they are carried from their battle stations . . . it could be that they will be looking over your shoulder--when you give--and saying "Thanks."

SOMETHING you'll want to remember is that the American Red Cross and the money you give to help it "carry on" does not fight. Its only concern is to ease the suffering and make more possible the "glad return" of our boys.

SOME WAY--please God--the simple truth will be clear . . . that your help is desperately needed. The money you give is like reaching out your hand across far distances and saying--WE WANT TO HELP YOU!

HODGES' FIRST ARMY POURS ACROSS RHINE

Russians Drive Within 29 Miles of Berlin

Escape Hatch for 50,000 Germans Is Rapidly Closing

By DON WHITEHEAD

With U. S. First Army on the Rhine, March 8.—(AP)—Lt. Gen. Courtney H. Hodges poured infantry across the Rhine today in a sudden and sensational crossing of the great river barrier begun last night.

Security forbade disclosing exact location of the bridge-head, but substantial forces have been thrown across the river south of Cologne and the Doughboys have a firm footing on the east bank.

The crossing was announced just two days after First Army troops captured the great Rhineland city of Cologne and 13 days after Hodges launched his offensive across the Roer river.

The Rhine crossing, it can be disclosed, was made with such suddenness that the enemy was caught unprepared and there was light opposition.

Hodges seized the opportunity for establishing a bridge-head with no delay and threw in troops quickly while the Germans were still disorganized from the swift American smash across the Cologne plains and Eifel mountains.

(A Blue Network broadcast said the First Army was a mile and a half from Bonn and three from Bad Bodesberg, where Neville Chamberlain, umbrella in hand, met Hitler just before the Munich conference seeking "peace in our time." German resistance was said to have collapsed with Americans racing through town after town virtually unopposed.)

The Germans said the First army had crossed the Ahr river, last water barrier between them and the Third army, and that Patton's tanks were "advancing through the Eifel in the Rhine-Moselle triangle."

Both armies had achieved breakthroughs and both were attacking under news blackouts which Gen. Eisenhower hoped would keep the ignorant of their movements.

There was reason to expect that the trap would close within a matter of hours, tearing off another 2,500 square miles of the shrinking Reich.

Third army censors passed this cryptic message:

"Nothing new was reported officially on the Fourth Armored Division which reached the Rhine yesterday, but tanks are not yet across the river."

The terrific breakthrough of the Fourth armored division, led by white-haired Maj. Gen. Hugh Gaffey of Austin, Texas, Lt. Gen. George S. Patton's former chief of staff, covered 75 miles in 58 hours and reached the Rhine at a point specified only as "the area of Coblenz." Another column of this Third army division spurred southward from the Mayen vicinity and last was reported three miles from the Moselle.

The First army pressed upon Bonn in an arc last reported from two to three miles from that ancient birthplace of Beethoven. The Bonn bridge across the Rhine was reported down.

In the Wesel area north of the Ruhr capital of Dusseldorf, the Canadian First army launched two dawn attacks against the 40-square mile pocket where 20,000 German troops last were reported fighting resolutely.

Gen. Eisenhowers' seven active armies all were on the Rhine and held more of its castled west bank north of the Alps than did the Germans. The last of the Rhine land was as good as lost. The Germans had the west bank only in the Saar wedge between the Moselle and the Rhine.

Approximately 350 fighters provided cover for the bombers. Close protection against the German air force seldom is needed any more.

The British night attack was carried out by the RAF this year. The British planes blasted the Germans' eastern front base of Dessau, struck at vital oil refineries.

Washington, March 8.—(AP)—President Roosevelt returned today from a four-day visit to his home in Hyde Park, N. Y., and almost immediately went into conference with Vice President Truman, Speaker Rayburn, Senate Leader Barkley and House Leader McCormack.

Rome, March 8.—(AP)—The U. S. 10th Mountain Division made "local improvements" yesterday, despite German attacks on its newly won positions west of the Bologna-Pistoia highway on the Fifth Army Italian front, Allied headquarters announced today.

Los Angeles, March 8.—(AP)—The Los Angeles Examiner said today it had learned that 18-year-old Nona Eddington Flynn will sue Film Actor Erroll Flynn for divorce on allegations of mental deficiency and incompatibility.

A U. S. Fortress Base in Britain, March 8.—(AP)—The Flying Fortress "Rose of York," christened last summer by Princess Elizabeth, in whose honor it was named, was one of the 19 bombers missing after the big Berlin raid of February 3, it was disclosed today.

Gen. George S. Patton's 3rd Army, spearheaded by Brig.-Gen. Holmes Dager's tanks, hit a mile-an-hour clip following start of its big push east of Bitburg, and now threatens the Rhine city of Coblenz. U. S. 1st and 9th Armies to the north are consolidating their positions along the Rhine. On the Eastern Front, the Russians, in capturing Cammin, sealed off the Baltic port of Stettin, and are closing in on that Oder River city.

Gains Made By Yanks On Luzon Island

War-Time Prosperity Hits Penitentiary

Philadelphia, March 8.—(AP)—Wartime prosperity has hit Eastern State Penitentiary.

So many prisoners earned more than $624 on prison war contracts last year, Warden Herbert Smith said, that a revenue agent will spend a day at the prison helping the men fill out income tax returns.

By RICHARD C. BERGHOZ

Manila, March 8.—(AP)—U. S. troops were on the southern shores of Luzon for the first time today as other Yanks, east of Manila, inched forward against Japanese positions softened by the heaviest air strikes thus far used in support of ground action in the southwest Pacific.

While American bombers sweeping China sea shipping sank or damaged two warships and 16 freighters, 11th Airborne Division and 158th Infantry Regiment units penetrated to the south coast of Luzon Tuesday to capture Balayan and Calatagan at Balayan bay.

They met only scattered resistance.

Program To Relieve State Institutions

Harrisburg, March 8.—(AP)—Utilization of between 600 and 700 beds at Mt. Alto sanitarium and 500 more at Clarks Summit hospital was expected to help relieve the overcrowded conditions now existing in Pennsylvania mental hospitals.

Welfare Secretary S. M. R. O'Hara told a Senate committee yesterday that the hospitals now have an inmate population of 35,000 against a rated capacity of 27,507 with the number of patients increasing at the rate of 700 annually.

"We are doing everything that can be done," she told the committee, then added "I cannot build hospitals overnight."

Governor Martin, after endorsing a ten-year program for extensive development of mental, penal, and medical institutions in the state said immediate steps would be taken to relieve the present emergency.

The program was prepared after months of conferences among labor, industry, federal, selective service and WMC officials, the commission said, following which an 11-point agreement was signed.

"This is not the same program as the Allentown 'war work or no work' plan begun on a small scale in Allentown early this year, but it is similar," a commission spokesman said.

The new program affects male workers in "less essential" industries from 16 years of age upwards," the VMC said. "There is an overall need in the Philadelphia area of 25,000 persons, including women."

First to be affected, the commission said, will be such industries as confectionery, hat manufacturing, brewery, taxicab, lace manufacturing, baking (not bread makers, but fancy cake bakers), soft drink bottling and textile manufacturing.

Enemy battle plans apparently have been disorganized by the British dash across the Irrawaddy river valley to the Meiktila area, an operation which has threatened the Japanese rear communications.

Unless the Japanese can bring in reinforcements immediately, it is believed here they may be ousted from Burma in the not too distant future.

These percentages of capacity were retained late yesterday: Tygart, near Grafton, W. Va., 64; Youghiogheny, 13.5; Tionesta, 53; Mahoning creek, 73.5; Crooked Creek, 51, and Loyallanna, 41.5.

Combat Casualties Near Million Mark

Washington, March 8.—(AP)—Army and navy combat casualties since the beginning of the war have reached a total of 823,632, two services disclosed today.

Secretary of War Stimson reported army casualties of 732,922 on the basis of individual names compiled in Washington through February 28. The latest navy casualty figure is 90,710.

The overall total represents an increase of 10,600 over last week's figure. The army accounted for all except 373 of the rise.

A crowd had to jump fast to avoid injury as the unexpected incident occurred outside the prison.

The woman, Mrs. Elsie Van Der Elst, who long has been a vigorous opponent of capital punishment, repeated: "You let the girl off, but you hang the man. It's a damned shame!"

She referred to the reprieve granted Hulten's co-defendant, Mrs. Elizabeth Marina Jones, 18-year-old British strip tease dancer, Home Secretary Herbert Morrison recommended to the King Tuesday that her sentence be commuted to life imprisonment.

Hulten, whose home was in Cambridge, Mass., and the girl were convicted in an internationally publicized trial at Old Bailey on charges of killing George Edward Heath, a taxicab driver known as the "man with the cleft chin," last Oct. 6.

Hulten, sentenced to death Dec. 23, was the first American soldier to receive a sentence at the hands of British authorities in wartime.

Aged Lady Evacuated From Home 58th Time

Carnegie, March 8.—(AP)—It was 58 years ago when Mrs. Anna Kennedy settled down here as a bride, and each year since then she has had to evacuate her home because of overflow water from Chartiers creek.

It was no different yesterday for the 78-year-old woman, except that it was the first time she was carried out.

Her policeman son, Leonard Kennedy, came to the rescue and carried her through waist-deep water to safety.

FORTRESS OF KUESTRIN IS PENETRATED

Fighting reported flaming along 125-mile front on Oder from Stettin Bay to Crossen

MARCHING ON DANZIG

BULLETIN
London, March 8.—(AP)—The Russians have driven to within 25 miles of Berlin's city limits, outflanking the fortress of Kuestrin and reaching Seelow on the west side of the Oder, a Transocean broadcast from the German capital said today.

London, March 8.—(AP)—Marshal Gregory Zhukov's massive new assault on the Oder, timed with the Allied drive to the Rhine in the west, has reached to within 29 miles of Berlin, a German military commentator said today.

Heavy attacks are taking place at Niederdwutzen, four miles southwest of Zehden in a loop of the Oder river, Col. Ernst von Hammer said in a Berlin broadcast, and the Russians have made two breaches in the defenses of the fortress of Kuestrin to the southeast.

Fighting was reported flaming along a 125-mile front along the Oder from Stettin Bay to Crossen, following a terrific artillery barrage that began 48 hours ago. The enemy said the focal point of the attack was on both sides of Kuestrin, 39 miles east of Berlin, with the Russians battering at the northwest, eastern and southern sides of the fortress.

To the northeast, the Germans said the Russians have invaded the old Danzig free state and smashed to within 19 miles of Danzig.

Moscow had not officially confirmed German announcements of the launching of the second great phase of Marshal Stalin's eastern offensive, toward Berlin, but correspondents in the Soviet capital said the slow drop started, and the Portsmouth crest was expected to reach there too late to force the river up again, unless further heavy rains fell.

The latter wing also was developing a front which threatened to place Stettin, Berlin's chief port and birthplace of Russia's Catherine the Great, under attack from south, east and north.

The Germans said the Russians had used boats to cross Madus Lake and were only 11 or 12 miles south of Stettin.

The Russians last night announced advances to places within 13 miles northeast of Stettin.

Farther north they had pushed even closer. After capturing Stepenitz, Gollnow and Massow they reached the narrow canalized section of the Oder linking Dammscher lake and Stettin bay.

Berlin reported that the Russians had invaded Wollin, first of the stepping stone islands separating the bay from the Baltic sea. Moscow dispatches said reconnaissance patrols were believed to be on the water.

Letter From France Is Tribute To Lt. John LeTrent, Warren

Through a letter received by the Times-Mirror, dated February 12 in France and signed Pfc. Joe Daniels (The Rebel), Jackson, Miss., comes news of another of the countless deeds that has brought admiration and praise for America's men in the armed forces and the fact that one of the participants is from Warren adds immeasurably to its interest. The letter follows:

Here in France is a story of a hero from Warren, Pa., about which I know you'd like to know about. He not only accomplished his miserable mission. After giving us a tip to Lt. John A. LeTrent.

Lt. LeTrent received his orders from battalion headquarters to form a volunteer patrol for a dangerous mission. After giving us a pep talk, the Lt. asked for volunteers. I was proud to see over thirty men volunteer. Lt. LeTrent asked for only twelve. He asked how many men were married. No one raised a hand. Lt. LeTrent smiled and said "sure as hell one of you is married". The boys all knew that the married men would be left behind. Lt. LeTrent had pulled that trick on us before.

The Lt. picked eleven men and myself, who he always called "the rebel" because I was from Mississippi, got us into a group and began telling our mission.

The mission was: We were to start out at midnight, work our way through the German lines to a small bridge of (name is omitted for censorship rules) to blow the bridge the following night. The bridge was important to the Germans, on a road the Germans used for supplies.

We started out at midnight, led by Johnny, the name Lt. LeTrent used on patrols. We worked our way three miles behind the German lines, reached a vacated house and used cellar to rest in and wait for night to set in. Lt. LeTrent took Sgt. Whitten with him to locate the bridge. They were gone three hours. When they got back they had enough information for us that all we had to do was follow orders.

We knew where the bridge was; the traffic on the bridge; how many guards on the bridge; the time the guard changed; the route to take to get there; our route to withdraw; and our assembly point to meet after we had blown the bridge. We were to start out at 1:30 a. m. to get to the bridge by 2:15 a. m. we knew the new guard went on at 1:30 a. m. and was relieved at 3:30, which gave us time to operate under one tour of guard.

Two men were picked to overthrow the guard and the rest of the boys to be on the lookout and protect Lt. LeTrent and Sgt. Whitten, who were going to set the dynamite and TNT under the pier. It was to string the wire back to the detonator and have it all set. Lt. LeTrent gave the order for all that was the last I saw of Lt. LeTrent. My guess is he went to a hospital to be treated for his wounds and slept two days from exhaustion. I know that's what I did.

Wherever you are, Lt. LeTrent, I know you'd want to know what happened to the rest of the boys. Eddy and Spike are in a hospital in England. The rest are up at the front. I am on my way back to see you there. I have an apology to make to you and that is that I'll be back all I said about Pennsylvania, and especially the ones from Warren. We all thought of you as being tops.

Pfc. Joe Daniels, (The Rebel) Jackson, Miss.

SWANSON BROTHERS MEET IN BELGIUM

Word has been received from Sgt. Frederick J. Swanson and Pfc. Marshall E. Swanson, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Swanson, of Pleasanton, that they recently had the pleasure of meeting somewhere in Belgium. Marshall writes that he was walking along the street when suddenly someone drove up and said "Hi, there". He looked up and who could it be but his brother, Frederick. The boys had dinner and spent several happy hours together when the sergeant spoke up, saying "I must be on my way. I have no more time to linger. So long now, will see you soon". Marshall writes: "Don't worry, Frederick looks swell. Only thing wrong with him is a beard of several days' growth".

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stanton, of Lander, have received word that their son S/Sgt. John Henry Stanton, has been awarded the Bronze Star Medal. No details have been disclosed concerning the action which merited the decoration.

Flight Officer John D. Frontera, who graduated from Marfa twin engine pilots school in February and spent a few days delay en route with his family and friends, is now at Sheppard Field, Texas, where he will take up his duties as an Air Transport Command service pilot.

Now long before we sent the boys back a sniper got me in the shoulder and leg. Lt. LeTrent located the sniper and I need not say what happened. I was bleeding bad and couldn't walk. Johnny pulled me into a ditch and told me to be quiet for a few minutes. Three Germans were approaching us. Lt. LeTrent waited until they were 15 yards from him and let them have it with his Tommy gun. Those were three more Germans we don't have to fight any more. He looked at me and asked if I was all right, with that smile he always had. He said that the lines weren't over a thousand yards ahead of us and we would have to wait until night settled in before starting off again. Lt. LeTrent looked at me and asked "are you married, rebel?" I said yes and that I had a son I had never seen. When I asked him if he was married he looked at me and said yes, but he wasn't the man I was. We both got a good laugh out of it. We talked about how much I hate Pennsylvania and he'd throw it right back at me that he didn't think much of Mississippi. That was the way we passed the time, arguing and getting a big laugh out of it. He made me forget I was even wounded until he said "OK, rebel, let's start back". I got to my feet and went down as fast as I got on them. Again I got razzed. Lt. LeTrent said "don't you ever say anything about how tough the Mississippi boys are to me again". I was picked up and we started back. We reached the lines safely.

Local Man In Bomber Unit Is Twice Cited

From headquarters of the 15th AAF in Italy comes word that S/Sgt. Ivan E. Zimmerman, 24, of 114 Canton street, electronic maintenance man in a B-24 Liberator bomber squadron, is authorized to wear the Distinguished Unit badge with one Cluster, as a member of a veteran Liberator group which twice has been cited for "outstanding performance of duty in armed conflict with the enemy".

The group received its original gold-rimmed blue ribbon for an attack on the Prufening aircraft factory at Regensburg, Germany, on February 25. The cluster was added for a mission over the Ploesti, Rumania, oil refineries on April 5. The citations read in part:

For Regensburg—"Notified to prepare . . . maximum aircraft, personnel, worked feverishly, enthusiastically and with untiring intensity. The tremendous material damage inflicted . . . contributed to the curtailment of aircraft production by the enemy at a time of great importance".

For Ploesti—"Under the most difficult and trying conditions on the ground and despite extremely adverse weather conditions in the air, the group . . . successfully delivered a devastating blow to the important enemy oil installations. The grim determination . . . and heroic courage of the combat crews, together with the professional skill and devotion of duty of the ground personnel . . . are outstanding in the history of aerial warfare".

Son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Zimmerman, Sgt. Zimmerman was graduated from Warren High School in 1938 and was employed as a sheet metal worker for the Penn Furnace and Iron Company before entering the army in October, 1942. He received his training at Boca Raton, Fla.

Tomorrow the Red Cross War Fund will seek $42,600 as Warren county's share of $200,000,000 the Red Cross must have to carry on its work this next 12 months.

Their slogan, "Keep the Red Cross at His Side", is no idle phrase. For, like the Army and Navy, the Red Cross is in this global war to the limit. In the camps at home, rest camps overseas, working with prisoners of war and bringing small comforts to the boys in the front lines, the Red Cross serves our boys and serves them well.

What will be your share in this work? How many of your dollars will you give to help keep the Red Cross "at his side"? What satisfaction, measured in terms of dollars, will your gift give you?

Our quota in Warren county is a modest one, compared to the national quota, which is larger than a year ago. Larger, because the Red Cross is working harder, covering more territory than ever and doing a grander job, in a better way, than was ever thought possible.

Here is a chance for we folks on the home front to give a little of ourselves to our boys "over there" who are giving everything they possess for their loved ones at home. The Red Cross needs no one to extoll its good works. Nothing we can say will add to the lustre of what our boys are doing in the tough battles in which they are engaged. But, by the amount of our gift, we can, in a small way, tell them of our appreciation and know that the Red Cross will administer our gift in the best possible manner. So, come now, what's your share?

No war of history has produced such flaming drama as is now being staged on the battlefields of Europe, but one of the most impressive features of this great finale is a behind-the-scenes effect—the amazing coordination of the effort between the western Allies and the Russians. This teamwork has been particularly noticeable since the Crimean parley of the Big Three, when important military decisions were taken to ensure full cooperation as the Allies rush for the kill.

The Warren School Music Boosters' Club, one of the most progressive organizations in Warren, has an interesting program for the meeting this evening at 7:45 o'clock in Beatty school. This group makes a large contribution to the music life of the community.

JESUS HAD TO DIE

Lesson, Rom. 5:8. Text, 1 Peter 3:18. Jesus expired amid the most awful and sublime phenomena ever known. This earth, which had moved steadily on for thousands of years, trembled from center to circumference when the cross to which He was nailed was uplifted. The rocks let go and fell apart. All nature felt the shock. The king of day veiled his face and refused to look upon that scene. Oh, what a tragedy to stir the soul! The earth was the theatre, wicked men the players, the Marys of earth and the angels of heaven the on-lookers. The question inevitably arises: "Why did Jesus have to die?"

Jesus had to die in order that we might understand to some extent how God hates sin! Sin is the transgression of God's law, whether by thought, words or actions. I wonder if any of us has ever realized what it is to commit sin! It seems that the greatest privilege that any Christian could have would be that God should bestow upon him the power to adequately conceive the "exceeding sinfulness of sin", and then, because of this divine bestowal, to be enabled to convince others of God's appraisal of sin. The only accurate gauge we have with which to measure the enormity of sin is the punishment that a loving, tender, compassionate God has decreed against it. We look at the cross and see Jesus die! The heavens darkened, the sun clouded—we hear the rumbling of the earth and the rocks rending; men falling and trembling. And we cry out, "O, God, why all this darkness and this woe?" And from the chasms of eternity we hear a voice of love—saying "It is because I want the sinner to see what a fearful thing sin is; I would have him know that I hate sin, but I love the sinner, and want to save him from it!" God hates sin today! Hates it with a perfect hatred. He could not be a perfect God unless He hated sin with a perfect hatred. Hence this sacrifice, the spotless Son of God, must be a perfect sacrifice to bring men back to God.

49th Metzger-Wright Spring Opening Recalls Era of Old Kerosene Lamp

An evening of pleasure was given the community on Wednesday when Metzger-Wright's opened its doors for its annual Spring Opening, a much-anticipated event of the last 49 spring seasons, and it was noted that each year the store and its windows seem to outdo all previous efforts in attractiveness.

The matter of windows was a problem in this year of 1945, when the brown-out decree is nationwide, but the always alert decorator, Mildred Carter, created windows recalling the years before electricity was even thought of, the years of kerosene lamps, and lighted each of the Early American windows in this fashion.

Wandering on Liberty street, one found himself transported back to the days when attics had large cobwebs and little mice running around, but the artist was dressed very much in the mode of today. Another window on this street carried one back to the time of cabbies in Central Park, complete with old carriage lights and lamp post lights, but a modern miss represented in a copper coat and suit for walking in the park. Along Second avenue, the blending of old and new was most evident. Black and white checks, light shades of lime, American beauty, navy, chartreuse were well to the fore in the fashion picture in these displays and two bedrooms in one country scene, complete with lantern, captured the eye. The lamps and old fashioned furniture was loaned for the occasion by the Thrift Shop.

One fully expected the entire store to be lighted by lamplight, but inside one returned at once to the era of today's wonders. Exquisite handbags, such as hasn't been seen in years, greeted the eye and charming was the only way to express the beauty of the cosmetics. Materials, with their corresponding accessories, were draped gracefully on all the tables, making a gorgeous color panorama. The new rayon and linen, or rayon and cotton table cloths, were exquisite in their shimmering beauty. We vowed to make ourselves at least one suit from the exciting new wools and flannels we saw on display.

On the second floor we went into ecstasies over a little room which was complete with a studio couch, all made over with striped and solid color fabric, and new window treatments that were exceptional in their combination of striped and solid color fabric to show how the old could be made over into the new. Beautiful florals and stripes, new curtains with deep ruffles, and tailored ones, were all artistically displayed, all with their coordinated wall paper, which came in for our "Ohs" and "Ahs" on this floor.

Of course, Third Floor was where we must linger a while to see all the cleverest Easter hats, if one could call those little flower creations such, so pert, so simply luscious in colors and even in black. We were quite thrilled over the new coral shades in coats, suits, and dresses. Everywhere was color, bright or subdued, but an array of color which took our breath away. Even in the infants' and sportswear departments, as well as in lingerie. One black and white creation we vowed would be ours, a soft woolly coat over a black dress.

On Fourth Floor where Ford Winner's Orchestra held sway, we admired the Easter fashions for our girl in her teens and her younger sister. Very much like mother's were these, complete with suit and coats to match or contrast and lovely new fashions in dresses.

What we would not give to have some of the new chinaware we found in the china department and all that clear glass which means so much easier cooking for us. All displayed in the most interesting treatments.

All in all, we enjoyed our evening at Metzger-Wright's, as did many of the community and we do feel that this 49th Spring Opening has been one of the most enjoyable of them all.

Youth Party Has Plans Complete for Auditorium Shows

Because of their success, auditorium shows have become an established part of the community young people's parties at Beaty school. Eleanor Peters, chairman of the committee, announced today that there will be two performances of this week's auditorium show on Friday evening. Curtain time for the first performance will be 8:45 and for the second, 9:15.

John Erickson will again act as master of ceremonies. An innovation will be a skit, "Betty Beware," presented under the direction of Mrs. Phyllis Stanley, head of the Warren High School dramatic department. The cast features Betsi Conaway, Meredith Hutchings, and Betty Jean Kolpin.

Musical specialties on the program include Marcia Johnson, with a piano solo; a vocal number by Hugh Jamieson; and a clarinet number by Wilmer Latshaw. The committee will announce another auditorium specialty tomorrow.

Young people attending the party are reminded that free tickets must be secured at the door for admission to either auditorium show performance. Jim Richards is handling the table reservations for the gym and tickets for the auditorium show. Both of the performances on the Beaty stage will be completed in time for the floor show at 10 o'clock.

There will be dancing in the gym from 8:30 until the floor show starts and afterwards until the party closes at 11:30. Ping pong and table games will be available the same hours.

The new information booth worked so effectively at the last party, it has been made a part of the regular party setup. Charles Cochener, in charge of information, has had signs made this week for all departments of activity and Arlene Speckman, or a member of her committee, will be at the information booth all evening.

Tolerance

Barbara Coe, 222 Cenewango Avenue
Second Prize in Brotherhood Week Essay Contest

How strange it is that in our country, which has always prided itself on modern ideas, a question of tolerance should even arise! This country was founded by people who wanted to escape the intolerance of Europe. Yet now, when it is so important to have a united, ugly race and religious problems threaten.

Tolerance is a mental habit which one acquires from his parents, his education, and his religious training. It develops according to the tempo at which one lives. Children who have had to respect other people and their beliefs become tolerant and fair-minded. Schools that practice and teach the true principles of democracy produce broad-minded individuals. However, in a church where tolerance should be supreme, the practice becomes inconsistent when petty quarrels arise.

Being tolerant is respecting others' opinions, customs and preferences. It does not mean that we

Peregrinating Island Causes Debate Among Observers

The island above the Glade Run bridge has probably roused more comment during the past few days than any other topic except the war. Has the island moved down stream? Scores of observers are staunch in their argument that it really has moved while there are others equally sure that the island has held its base and has not gone gallivanting down stream.

Donald Spencer, of the Highway Department who has worked around Glade bridge many times and who aided in putting new piers under it is sure that the island is not moving down stream. He points out that with water over the island it just looks different to the casual observer. The big tree which Pete Fanaritis claims he could jump into off the bridge is just where it always was, says Spencer. Merrill Jordan, U. S. Government Observer of the river and its moods is also sure that the island is not jumping around and has staid put although the river annually takes its toll of the earth and trees on the island. He is sure the "big tree" is just where it was and that there has been no shifting in position.

Deputy Sheriff Sanford Secor has joined the ranks of the folk who claim the island has moved down stream. He said this morning "I drive past there every day but never took particular notice until this morning. I really think the island has moved, just how far I couldn't say but it seems to me that big tree was never so close to the bridge before."

However the big boss of the Highway Department here, Warren Lowe is sure the island has moved down stream. "That tree was never that close to the bridge" said Lowe this morning. "I have observed that tree for many years and I am sure it was never so close to the bridge. No checks have been made officially but I am going to have measurements made when the water goes down and will have them for reference next year as I have talked to many who feel that the island is moving down stream a little each year."

Elmer Osterberg, driver of the West Ridge bus from Erie to Kane was one of the men, who last year noted the shift of the island and commented upon it. Last year he pointed out that the island was moving down stream and claimed it had moved several feet. He has noted the position of the "big tree" and gives it as his opinion that the whole island has shifted down stream.

It will be interesting when the owners of the oil wells on the island get over to them and make a check up to see if the whole thing is an optical illusion as the connections of the wells are intact there could not have been any movement. Would the casing, rods, etc., of the wells be undamaged the proponents of the shifting sands will have little upon which to hang their arguments.

In the meantime the old island

Victory Gardeners To Receive Advice On Their Plantings

With the forecasts that foods of various kinds will be in much less quantity than they were last year the government is urging that every householder this year plant a victory garden. Home canning of garden products this year will be more important than in 1944 and there promises to be a real scarcity of foodstuffs of many kinds next fall and winter.

In an effort to aid the gardeners of this county to attain greater degree of success in their work this year, County Agent O. C. Tritt has arranged a series of garden meetings in this county, for Thursday and Friday of this week. Meetings on Thursday will be held at 10:30 a. m. at the Garland community house; at 1:30 at the National Forge and Ordnance club house, Irvine, and at 8:30 in the court house. Friday meetings will be held at 10:30 at the Sugar Grove school house and at 1:30 at the Lander community hall.

C. J. Stout, vegetables garden specialist at State College, has been secured to come into the county and address the gatherings. His topic will be "How To Get the Most Out of the Vegetable Garden With the Least Amount of Fertilizer." He is an expert in giving information to prospective gardeners and those who had gardens last year will find much to aid them in the continuation of the work they started last year.

be met with at the local airport as the runway now in use will be too short. The Stinson plane now in use on the mail and express run is forced to utilize most of the runway for a take-off with a load and larger planes would be unable to take-off.

To that end airminded folk in the city are watching with home interest the plan of the state aeronautics board regarding construction of new ports. This city has tentatively been allocated $415,000 for a new airport providing the city match the state fund.

The gum-secreting hairs on the bud of certain plants are called colleters.

Cold Causes Drop In Water About County

During the night the Allegheny river and other streams in the county dropped sharply from their high of yesterday and waters are rapidly returning to their regular courses. The river this morning registered 11.7 feet and was falling, according to the official observer. Low lands that had been covered with water were beginning to emerge from the flood. Most of the ice that had been deposited on the river banks when the ice went out had been washed back into the stream and carried off. However at Corydon and Kinzua where the fields were covered with tons of ice it is not expected that most of it will be in the fields until melted by the sun.

There is an axiom among river men that the river always rises high enough to take any ice that it left. Should that prove true more high water is promised by the old river men who do not feel that the river will rise to that height again to remove the ice at Corydon and Kinzua.

Small streams over the county are getting back into normal shape and while there is considerable snow left in the woodlands yet danger from a flood is thought to be passed.

Air Express Records Are Being Broken

One of the developments in air traffic which is attracting widespread attention in this community is the air express which is increasing by leaps and bounds. Last month the handling of air express in Warren broke all records and almost two tons of matter was transmitted by this method. Agent Gilmore, of the Railway Express Company, stated this morning that last month the air express business handled at the Warren office was 225% greater than for any other month in the history of the business here.

During the past few months much attention has been drawn to the trucks loaded with logs that have passed through Warren. Farmers in the county with woodlots are co-operating in the work and are adding goodly sums to their bank accounts.

AN ENTHUSIASTIC AND WELL ATTENDED SECTIONAL MEETING IN THE INTEREST OF THE RED CROSS WAR FUND WAS HELD IN YOUNGSVILLE LAST NIGHT. MR. E. B. DAY PRESIDED OVER THE GROUP OF WORKERS REPRESENTING YOUNGSVILLE, SPRING CREEK, PITTSFIELD, BROKENSTROW AND PART OF CONEWAGO TOWNSHIPS.

GENERAL CHAIRMAN ALLISON D. WADE AND COUNTY CHAIRMAN RAY S. THOMPSON WERE PRESENT TO TELL THE WORKERS WHAT WAS EXPECTED OF THEM IN THE APPROACHING WAR FUND CAMPAIGN. CONFIDENCE, ON THE PART OF THOSE PRESENT, WAS EXPRESSED THAT THEIR SECTION OF THE COUNTY WOULD MEET THE QUOTA ASIGNED.

McDOWELL, MRS. WARREN JONES, MRS. GORDON KAY, MRS. CECIL FITZGERALD, MRS. PAUL FAGO, MRS. ANITA SHEFFER, MRS. ARLENE MOTT, MRS. FRANK BOWER, MRS. LELAND SISTER, CONEWAGO II, MRS. BURDETTE WEILER, CHAIRMAN; MRS. RALPH OLSON, MRS. CHARLES SMITH.

BROKENSTRAW I, AXEL JOHNSON, CHAIRMAN; MRS. GLADYS BROWN, MRS. ARTHUR PETERSON, MRS. ETHEL OLSON, MRS. PEARL HADAYARD, MRS. LENA MOURER, MRS. WILLIAM CREPPEN.

PITTSFIELD I, MRS. ARRILD JOHNSON, CHAIRMAN; MRS. L. J. EIGHMEY, MRS. RUTH WILCOX, MRS. MARY TECONCHUK, MRS. TILLIE AVERY.

SPRING CREEK II, MRS. BERNICE SICKLER, CHAIRMAN; MRS. MILDRED EDY, MRS. LEON WHITELY, MRS. LOUISE LILLIE, MRS. BETTY DAMON, MRS. LILLIE TUBBS.

FOLLOWING THE MEETING THE WORKERS WERE ASSIGNED THEIR PROSPECTUS AND OTHER MATERIAL.

THAT ENDED THE USE OF THAT NOISE MAKER UNTIL IT WAS SENT BACK TO THE FACTORY AND REBUILT.

ABOUT THAT TIME THE VICTOR CO. CAME OUT WITH THEIR ELECTRIC RECORDED RECORDS, ORTHOPHONIC REPRODUCTION, ETC., AND MAHOOD SOLD HIS STORE TO MIKE BURKE AND WENT TO CHASING "TYPE LICE" AS A MAIN HOBBY.

IN LATER YEARS MAHOOD GOT BACK IN THE GAME ON THE THIRD FLOOR OF WHAT IS NOW THE MURPHY BUILDING AND HAD PATRONS WALKING TWO AND THREE ABREAST UP TWO FLIGHTS OF STAIRS TO BUY RECORDS ON A SATURDAY NIGHT.

IT WAS NOTHING AT ALL TO SELL BETWEEN THREE AND FIVE HUNDRED RECORDS ON A SATURDAY IN THOSE DAYS.

HE HAD ONE OF THE FIRST OUTDOOR LOUDSPEAKERS TO PLAY RECORDS AND IT SURE DRAGGED THEM UP THOSE STAIRS. "LITTLE MARIAN PARKER" WAS THE BIG SELLER THEN AND HE HAD TO ORDER THE RECORDS BY THE HUNDREDS.

LATER ON "BROADWAY MELODY", "SONNY BOY" AND AN ENDLESS NUMBER OF THEM WENT OVER BIG AND MAHOOD SURE RAISED OLD NED BETWEEN LIBERTY AND HICKORY STREETS WITH HIS MUSIC IN THOSE DAYS.

HE SAYS HE MAY BE RESPONSIBLE FOR A FEW OF THE GRAY HAIRS IN EARL BESHLIN'S HEAD, BUT IT WAS FOUR OR BESHLIN'S (THEN BOROUGH ATTORNEY) HEAD, BUT IT WAS FOUR OR FIVE RADIOS ON LIBERTY STREET, ALL GOING ALL DAY LONG WITH A DIFFERENT STATION TUNED IN THAT REALLY CAUSED THE "NOISE NUISANCE" ORDINANCE TO BE PASSED BY THE COUNCIL, THIS ENDING ONE "PUBLIC NUISANCE".

HOWEVER, ABOUT THAT TIME THAT MAHOOD'S AMPLIFIER BURNED UP ONE NIGHT AND HE NEVER DID REPLACE IT.

ANYWAY, HE SAYS HE PLAYED REAL MUSIC AND EVEN IF THE NEIGHBORS DIDN'T LIKE IT, ALL THE COWS AND GOATS ON THE HILLS IN PLEASANT TOWNSHIP DID, AND BEHIND HIM HE SOLD A LOT OF RECORDS.

MAHOOD IS NOT ONE OF THE REAL OLD TIMERS, BUT HAS BEEN AROUND FOR QUITE A SPELL AND CLAIMS HE HAD THE FIRST BONIFIDE PHONOGRAPH STORE IN WARREN—SOME OTHERS LIKE THE BENNETT PIANO CO., OZRO WEAVER, BARNHART AND DEFOREST INSURANCE AGENCY AND MAYBE BIEKARCKS SOLD THEM AS A SIDE LINE, BUT MAHOOD HAD A COMPLETE LINE OF "GENUINE GOLD MOLDED COLUMBIA PHONOGRAPH RECORDS."

THE OLD TIME MUSICIANS DIDN'T THINK MUCH OF THAT "CANNED" MUSIC IN THOSE DAYS.

MAHOOD'S STORE WAS THEN LOCATED AT WHAT WOULD BE NEXT DOOR TO MORRELL'S RESTAURANT IN A LITTLE LOW-FRAME BUILDING BELONGING TO CHARLIE CRANDALL.

CAME A BIG FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION AND HE BORROWED WHAT WAS THEN SOMETHING IN THE LINE OF A RECORD REPRODUCER FROM THE COLUMBIA PHONOGRAPH CO., AND HAD IT ON A TRUCK IN THE PARADE. IT WAS A REGULAR "CULL FIDDLE" IN THE PHONOGRAPH LINE AND HAD A BIG BRASS HORN SIX FEET LONG. IT WAS PROBABLY THE FIRST "TRANSCRIBED" MUSIC EVER ON THE STREETS OF WARREN.

HE KEPT THE MACHINE IN HIS STORE AND PLAYED IT IN THE EVENINGS AND HAD A RECORD OF THE SAN FRANCISCO EARTHQUAKE THAT WAS A HAIR-RAISER—FIRE BELLS, EXPLOSIONS, BUILDINGS FALLING, SCREAMS AND ALL THE RACKET IT WAS POSSIBLE TO IMITATE IN THOSE DAYS. IT WAS A WARM EVENING AND THE DOORS WERE OPEN AND MAHOOD HAD THE BIG HORN POINTED STRAIGHT UP THE CONEWAGO CREEK.

EVERYTHING WAS GOING FINE, WHEN ALONG CAME JOE WILLY ON HIS FAITHFUL OLD BICYCLE—JOE WAS ALMOST THE ENTIRE POLICE FORCE THEN—AND WANTED TO KNOW "WHERE THE RIOT WAS?" A LOOK UP THE CREEK SHOWED THE THIRD AND FIFTH STREET BRIDGES LINED WITH PEOPLE LOOKING FOR A "BIG FIRE" OR SOMETHING.

THE "GOOD NEIGHBOR POLICY" WAS IN VOGUE EVEN IN THOSE DAYS AND MAHOOD LOANED THE CONTRAPTION TO FRANK SCOTT, TO PLAY IN FRONT OF HIS MOVING PICTURE PLACE, WHICH WAS LOCATED WHERE GAUGHN'S DRUG STORE NOW IS.

ELECTRICAL AMPLIFICATION HAD NOT BEEN INVENTED THEN AND THIS MACHINE HAD FAST MOVING WHEELS WITH A CLUTCH ARRANGEMENT THAT CAUSED THE AMPLIFICATION AFTER A LITTLE POWDERED RESIN HAD BEEN APPLIED TO THE WHEEL—SAME AS THE OLD "BULL FIDDLERS".

ANYWAY, SCOTT HEARD THAT WHEEL SQUEAKING ONE EVENING AND GAVE IT A LIBERAL DOSE OF MACHINE OIL AND

THE OPENING OF THE NEW TRAINING HEADQUARTERS MADE AVAILABLE BY THE GENEROSITY OF E. L. STEIN AT 338 PENNSYLVANIA AVENUE, WEST, LAST EVENING PROVED A HIGHLIGHT IN THE ANNALS OF SQUADRON 53, CIVIL AIR PATROL, AS WELL AS A MINDED CITIZENS OF THE COMMUNITY. A LARGE NUMBER OF VISITORS TOOK ADVANTAGE OF THE OPPORTUNITY TO INSPECT THE QUARTERS AND LOOK OVER THE EQUIPMENT ALREADY INSTALLED. IT WAS INTERESTING TO LEARN THAT IN ADDITION TO THE APPARATUS IN THE ROOM, THERE ARE ON REQUISITION 35 ADDITIONAL ITEMS, ALL OF WHICH WILL WORK UP FOR CLASSROOM USE, SUCH AS ENGINES, PUMPS, BRAKES, PARTS OF PLANES, ETC.

INCLUDED IN THE ARTICLES YET TO BE RECEIVED IS A COMPLETE AIRPLANE WHICH HAS BEEN CONDEMNED. THIS WILL BE USED BY THE PATROL IN STUDYING AIRCRAFT IN BOTH ASSEMBLY AND REPAIRS.

THE DEVICE THAT ATTRACTED MOST INTEREST LAST EVENING WAS THE NAVIGATION TRAINER USED IN TEACHING NAVIGATION BY AIR BY DEAD RECKONING, WHICH WAS IN OPERATION MOST OF THE EVENING. THE REFLECTOR TRAINER, USED FOR AIRCRAFT IDENTIFICATION AND RECKONING RANGE, WAS ANOTHER CENTER OF ATTRACTION. THE CLASS IN MORSE CODE WAS IN SESSION AND GROUPS OF STUDENTS WERE BUSY AT OTHER TABLES CARRYING ON THEIR STUDIES IN SPITE OF THE "OPEN HOUSE." IT IS INTERESTING TO NOTE THAT THE NAVIGATION TRAINER IS ONE OF BUT 125 NOW IN USE IN THE COUNTRY, REFLECTING THE HIGH STANDING THAT THE LOCAL SQUADRON RETAINS AMONG AVIATION OFFICIALS IN WASHINGTON.

Sessions will be held in the headquarters Tuesday evening each week, with special classes arranged for other evenings. Persons interested in inspecting the room are cordially invited to do so on any occasion when it is open.

THE OPENING OF THE HEADQUARTERS FILLS A LONG-LENT NEED FOR THE LOCAL SQUADRON, WHICH ALREADY RATES AS ONE OF THE BEST IN THE EAST. IT WILL MAKE IT POSSIBLE TO EXPAND THE ACTIVITIES OF THE STUDENTS AND SHOULD RESULT IN GREATLY INCREASED ENROLLMENT.

Blue and White Cagers Wind Up Successful Season Under New Coach; 16 Wins, 6 Losses

Warren High School's basketball team had wound up another successful season, the first for Joseph A. Massa under Blue and White colors. The Dragon crew completed their 1944-5 season with a total of 16 wins and 6 losses, bettering the mark set by the championship 1943-4 aggregation who won 14 and lost 7, and equaling the '43-4 Dragons' venture into playoff competition, but stopping at exactly the same place.

Starting off with three lettermen and a new head mentor, the Dragons developed into a heighty and smooth-running ball club. Joe Scalise, Bob Hammerbeck and Lucia returned to the scene to form the backbone on another championship crew. Massa, having been with the Dragons one year, as second team coach, took the reigns left by veteran Heinie Kolpjen and started to build another championship five. Taking Tom Julian, Jack Eaton, and Al Babcock, Massa drilled the boys for several weeks before they hit their first opponent.

The Blue and White opened the season with a 6-2 win over the Youngsville Eagles, followed up by a 4-23 victory over St. Mary's Dutchmen. The first defeat came from Jamestown, a heart-breaker. The Dragons dropped a 34-33 to the Red and Green, but their courage didn't falter. They came back to decision Corry, Kane, Servicemen, and St. Mary's the second time, before Bradford downed the quint, 35-19. They kept on with Meadville and Titusville the next victims, but Jamestown interfered with the victory march again. Franklin, Oil City and Meadville, all league contestants, were the next to drop under Dragon power, as the locals continued to reign in the Section Two race.

Community Exhibit

Ludlow, March 8—vvgkqvbgkq

The final committee meeting

preparatory to The Community

Exhibit was held on Thursday evening at the High School when all details were settled. The date for the exhibit is Friday evening,

March 9, at the Ludlow High School. Doors will open at 7:30 p.

m. and the program will be given at 8:30 p. m. Everyone is urged to attend this interesting display which is given free of charge.

There will be articles from many foreign lands such as Poland, Russia, Czechoslovakia, Scandinavian countries, Italy, England and her possessions, etc. plus old things of interest from early Ludlow, some articles of the Revolutionary period, and a large exhibit representing the service men from Ludlow.

The last mentioned will probably be the largest table with pictures of other boys and girls they have sent from all parts of the world.

Any person of Ludlow who has a close relative in the service is invited to send his picture to the school and any gifts you wish to send to the exhibit as well as the other articles you plan to send.

All articles should be carefully tagged with the owner's name, and the history of the article included —and should be brought to the school on Friday morning, the ninth. Members of the committee will be present at all times during that day. The owners will be responsible for the articles exhibited but the committee will exer-

ct all possible care for the protection of your articles. Adults will be in charge at all times with assistance

by older Girl Scouts and older

High School students. Owners are requested to remove their articles at the close of the exhibit so as to avoid confusion. A very interesting short program will be given at 8:30 p. m. under the direction of the Misses Mary Catherine Math-

ers, Macie Johnson, Elizabeth

Hess, Violet Swanson and Hilma

Hanson. A tableau will be used as background and welcome speeches will be given in foreign languages, followed by international folk-songs and dances in costume. The maps which will be placed on the walls over the tables of the countries represented have been made by Kent Swanson, and eighth grade student, and naturally are based on pre-war maps. Among the high-lights of the evening will be the Ludlow Cook Books given to you as you leave. The cookbook cover design was made by a local artist, Mrs. Julius Swanson. These cookbooks are not to be sold that evening, but a collection box will stand near the cookbooks, the proceeds to be added to a movie fund for the school which is growing gradually larger. This is a wonderful project begun by the Ludlow schools and will be of immense value to the town if the sum needed can be met so as to purchase it. It is unnecessary to say how much visual education is being used—and of the definite program noticed in many students used. The cookbooks will be limited to one

To All Workers in Warren County!

SOMETIME soon you will be asked to give to the American Red Cross WAR FUND.

SOMEWHERE in the far-flung battle stations of the world our boys have come to know the real meaning of "Blood, Sweat and Tears." Some of these boys are from your own shop, your own office, your own home.

SOMEHOW it may be that when you give from your heart to ease their suffering . . . to make their safe return more possible . . . to throw every possible care around them when they are carried from their battle stations . . . it could be that they will be looking over your shoulder--when you give--and saying "Thanks."

SOMETHING you'll want to remember is that the American Red Cross and the money you give to help it "carry on" does not fight. Its only concern is to ease the suffering and make more possible the "glad return" of our boys.

SOME WAY--please God--the simple truth will be clear . . . that your help is desperately needed. The money you give is like reaching out your hand across far distances and saying--WE WANT TO HELP YOU!
